

LAWTON MULL

MOTHER OF PEARL GORGET ON STAND

PHILIPPINES

20th century

Mother of pearl, rattan

13" high x 11 3/4" wide x 1" deep

$1,100

An etched shell necklace of the Ifugao, the ethnic tribal people of the northern Philippines. Called a "palangapang," it is a traditional wealth object, worn by the most elite and wealthy tribal members for ceremonial purposes. Made of mother-of-pearl and plaited rattan.