VESTERGAARD JENSEN

HELGE VESTERGAARD JENSEN

1950s

Mahogany, teak, glass, brass

22" high x 57 1/2" wide x 29 3/4" deep

$8,300

Vestergaard Jensen's work is highly coveted by collectors due to its thoughtful details and seriousness of execution. This is a rare design: the slim, modern profile is coupled with a generous surface area. The thin glass top is held in place with low brass brackets which correspond with the brass sabots. Two contrasting woods are used: teak and mahogany.
