

LAWTON MULL

PERSIAN BALOUCH AND LEATHER FLOOR CUSHION

IRAN

Early 20th century

Wool, leather, feathers

34" x 34" x 8" high

$3,400

Woven with the repeated geometric motifs and colors--russet, maroon, indigo--typical of this type of early 20th century Persian floor covering. This piece is in a beautiful state of wear for its age. We have had the carpet transformed into a generously proportioned floor cushion, with a patchwork leather bottom and feather-and-down stuffing. A compelling accent in a well-considered room.
