

LAWTON MULL

MID-20TH CENTURY FRENCH
EBONIZED DINING TABLES

PIERRE GAUTIER-DELAYE (1923-2006)

Circa 1970s

Ebonized wood

29" high x 59" wide x 37 ¼" deep

$5,500 each

Pierre Gautier-Delaye was one of the great French modernist designers. Like Pierre Chapo and Le Corbusier, he worked with Charlotte Perriand. This pair of ebonized tables has a Japanese feeling. The legs flare almost imperceptibly, and while the design is strongly rectangular, the outer corners are softly rounded. The middle interstice is a bold design stroke.
